Foreword

Within the pages of this book are the hopes, dreams, and ideals of the Class of 1960. We have tried to give you an insight into the real character of the school and people who make up this yearbook.

Getting this far has not been a one-man job but has been achieved with the help of our principal, teachers, and classmates. We could not have made it without them, and we have appreciated their help more than words can express. As we go into a competitive world, we shall realize this fact more and more. In every position imaginable, you must come in contact with people, and there is not a better place than school to learn how to get along with people.

Today, more than ever, business demands a high school education in future employees, but also a college education. That is why it is so necessary for us to seek higher education and thereby be better equipped to enter the business world.

To the future graduates of Oak Hill High School, we leave this thought, "Education is your key to the future." It was with this thought in mind that we prepared this yearbook.

Class History

In September, 1956, we the class of 1960, entered Oak Hill High School as 70 green Freshmen. This was an important event in our lives.

After much confusion and going to the wrong classes, we finally settled down to our high school work. Mr. Larry Huffman was the teacher for the boys and Mrs. Joan Houser had the girls. Our Freshman class officers, combined, were; Carolyn Benfield, President; Peggy Cline, Vice President; Huebert Barrier, Secretary; Arnold Benfield, Treasurer; and Barbara Orders, Reporter.

Before we knew it, we were Sophomores. Our advisors were Mrs. Antionette Moore and Mr. Larry Huffman. This year we numbered 62. The class officers from Mrs. Moore's Home Room were; Barbara Orders, President; Rama Lee Harris, Vice President; Mike Kral, Secretary; Betty Spainhour, Treasurer; and Frances Whisnant, Reporter. Mr. Huffman's class officers were; Margie Reuther, President; Huebert Barrier, Vice President; Arnold Benfield, Secretary; Clifton Ramsey, Treasurer; and Roy Chester, Reporter.

In the fall of 1958, we returned as Juniors. This year was exciting with our plans for the Junior-Senior Banquet at which we were host. Our theme was "Come Down South." Our Junior play "Desperate Ambrose" was a hit under the direction of Mrs. Houser. Another important event of this year was the ordering of our class rings. The advisors for this year were Mrs. Antionette Moore and Mr. Max Harris. Class officers were; Mike Kral, President; Betty Spainhour, Vice President; Christina Webb, Secretary; James Moore, Treasurer; and Rama Harris, Reporter from Mrs. Moore's room, and Darryl Whisnant, President; Huebert Barrier, Vice President; Margie Reuther, Secretary; Roy Chester, Treasurer; and Barbara Cobb, Reporter from Mr. Harris's home room.

Finally, in the fall of 1959, we arrived back at school as "Dignified" Seniors. 43 of the 70 beginning freshmen enrolled as Seniors. Mrs. Mary Reep was our advisor with Darryl Whisnant, President; Mike Kral, Vice President; Betty Spainhour, Secretary; Juanita Silver, Treasurer; and Mary Lou Avery, Reporter.

This year was filled with many moments to remember, such as the Senior Play "The Able Miss Cain," our class rings, the Junior-Senior Banquet, our class trip, and finally graduation was upon us before we knew it.

This history will end when we receive our diplomas, but each individual will write his own future history through his deeds.

Class Prophecy

Twenty years - I wonder what they are doing now? How could I find out? I know, I shall go see the prosperous fortune teller Christina "The Magnificient" Webb, who now lives in New York City with one of my old classmate's brothers. Before I can go I will have my car fixed at Ronald Fleming's gas station.

Well, I'm on my way now to New York City. A sign says - Baltimore 25 miles. I think I'll stop at a shop or two and rest. Gee, what a beautiful curiosity shop ahead. The sign says Maxine Benton, proprietor. I simply must go in. There stands Clifford Austin. What is he doing here?

Whew! I liked to have never gotten out of there. Clifford is now a brilliant jazz director just back from traveling all over the world with Livia in their Jaguar. He told me that Mary Lou Avery lives in Florida and teaches school. It seems she has a strange hobby - running a private picnic area! Betty Spainhour is now in France where she runs a fashion shop in which all the celebrities, such as Laura Beth Withrow, star of "What are your Marriage Problems?", buy all their beautiful clothes.

Carolyn Benfield, Bennie Whisnant, and Peggy Lewis, professors, at Berea, told Clifford that Huebert Barrier was now the President of Berea.

Well, I guess I had better get on with my trip to New York City. I heard from Roger Caraway, a scientist at Cape Canaveral, that Warren H. and Jerry F. have finally seized the Moon.

I wonder what that building is? It is the Ford factory owned by Mike Kral, who is working on a 1980 T-Bird. I wonder if he's still a Mantle fan?

What a cute cafe up ahead! I'll stop for lunch. Could that be Charlie Mae Saulmon, the owner? I must go in! Why that's Jo Ann Allman waiting on a customer in the first booth. The customer looks like Kenneth Kayga wearing a truck driver's suit. I think I'll buy this Baltimore Daily News. Let's see what's happening today. Peggy Davis, our first woman President of the United States, is going over the 1980 budget with her secretary, Elizabeth Garrison. Here is an interesting column written by Rama Lee Whisnant, who has children now. Barbara Cobb, Nina Copeland, and Barbara Powell are all married and have 4 children each - all 2 sets of twins.

It says that Teeters now run by Charles Cooper, is running a sale on chop suey perfected by Alex Mayhue. I see here where Darryl Whisnant, now chief of police, has arrested Steve Perry for running red lights. (In a hurry, Steve?) The latest hair style designed by Carole Crump and Shirley McNeely! (What will happen next?)

The sports page features Harold Clark vs Luther Beck for the heavy-weight championship of the world at the Gardens tonight. Is that James Moore playing football for the Redskins? It sure is and the coach is Jimmy Orders. Their winning streak is because Jo Ann W. is their top cheerleader.

I see here where Arnold B. and Carol I. are big generals in the Army. Carolyn Benfield and Alice B. in the Wacs??? I wonder???

Dennis Byrd and Roy Chester, producer and director, have a movie out starring Beatrice Clark. Is the name "I Want To Look Again."?

I guess I had better get going. Now let me see - - - where was I going. Well it must not have been very important. I guess I'll return to my estate in Gattlingburg, Tennessee where my husband should be waiting for me.

It seems that I have forgotten someone. I know, it is Mrs. Mary Reep, our homeroom and English IV teacher. Maybe I can find out about her by writing to Mr. W. F. Brown, Jr., now the President of Harvard.

When I received my reply from Mr. Brown I was overjoyed because he told me about all my other teachers. He said that Mrs. Reep is an English Professor at A.S.T.C. Mr. Charles Webb is now married and has a large family and teaches in Charlotte. Mr. Max Harris still teaches commercial subjects at dear ole O.H.H.S. Mr. Larry Huffman devotes all his time to coaching football and basketball at U.N.C. Mr. Gary Hammond is a Professor at Wingate. Mrs. Antionette Moore is retired and she is living in her winter home in sunny Florida.

Now that I know all about my classmates and teachers, I can settle down again to rearing my triplets.

- I, Jo Ann Whisnant, will my ability to YELL to Judy Carswell.
- I, Mike Kral, will my ability to argue in study hall to Billy Whisnant.
- I, Carolyn Benfield, will my ability to "play ball" to Hazel Branch.

ARTICLE II

To the Juniors, we, the Senior Class, bestow upon you our rights, privileges, and dignity that we as Seniors had.

ARTICLE III

To the Sophomores, we, the Senior Class, will our ability to do our best in school always.

ARTICLE IV

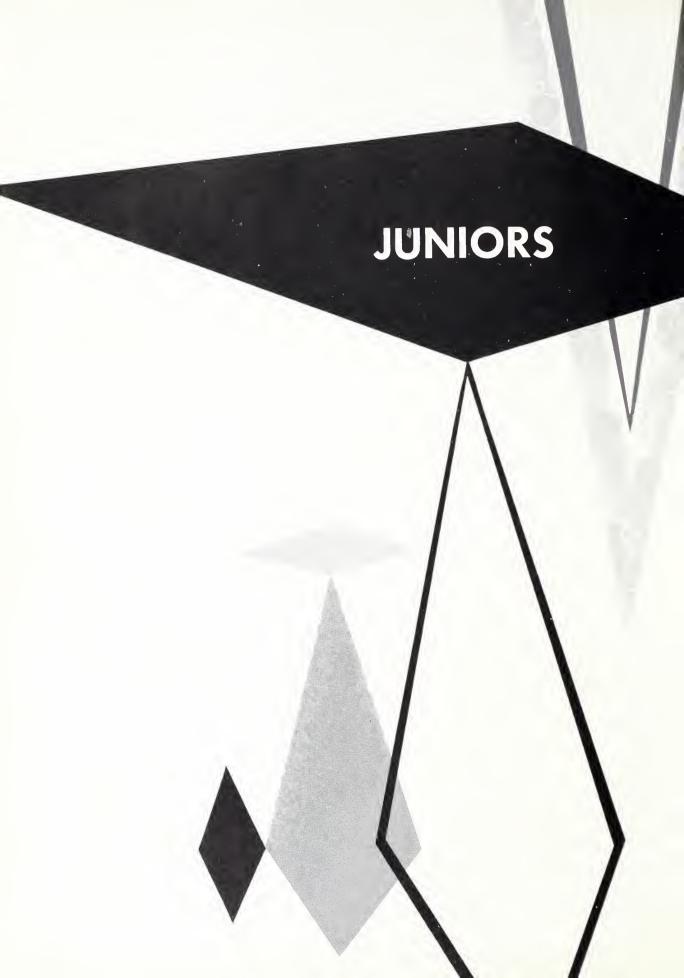

To the Freshmen, we, the Senior Class, bequeath all our dreams and unachieved ambitions.

ARTICLE V

To the faculty, we, the Senior Class, leave remembrances of happy (we hope) days spent together, and we wish to thank them for the interest they have shown in helping us improve our minds and ways of living.

ARTICLE VI

To Mrs. Mary S. Reep, we, the Senior Class, leave our appreciation and thankfulness for your guidance and encouragement that have made us better citizens in this world we will someday govern.
